

Session One : Monday, October 31, 2011 6:30PM-8:00PM – WCC 206

Title/Release Date	Producing Agency	Topic	Length	Contact email/phone
1. Know the Signs		DVD teaches first responders the signs and symptoms of abuse, neglect, and exploitation and lists key information to be gathered and reported to the Department of Social Services. Police, Fire, and Medic personnel will be trained using the DVD.	12m Excerpt 7:00m	Gary R. Black, BA Health Communication Mecklenburg County Health Department, Charlotte, NC 249 Billingsley Rd. Charlotte, NC 28211 Phone Number: 704-336-3354 Email: gblack@carolina.rr.com Alternate Email: gary.black@mecklenburgcountync.gov
2. Determinants of Health: A Framework for Reaching Healthy People 2020 Goals	Department of Health and Human Services Rockville, MD	This video includes the range of personal, social, economic, and environmental factors that influence health status. Healthy People 2020 emphasize an ecological approach to disease prevention and health promotion, which focuses on both individual-level and population-level determinants of health and interventions. This presentation illustrates the concept of health determinants, offers examples of interventions that address determinants of health, and discusses how Healthy People 2020 is exploring these factors.	5m 12s	Kimber Wukitsch, MPH Program Manager of HealthyPeople.gov 1101 Wootton Pkwy. Suite LL-100 Rockville, MD 20852 (240) 453-8270 kimber.wukitsch@hhs.gov
3. Delivering HIV Rapid Test Results: Experiences from the Field (2010)	JSI Research & Training Institute, Inc. Boston, MA	The video offers personal experiences and perspectives from a diverse group of clients. The film demonstrates counseling approaches for effectively delivering HIV test results.	35m 41s Excerpt 7:00m	Katie Martocci, MPH Health Services JSI Research & Training Institute, Inc. 44 Farnsworth St Boston, MA 02210 Phone Number: 617-482-9485 Publishable Email: kmartocci@jsi.com Alternate Email: martoccik@yahoo.com
4. Healthy Moms, Healthy Babies II (2010) from the Caafimaadkeena -Our Health Series	WellShare International Minneapolis, MN	This series provides culturally sensitive health information to the Somali community. In this program, we hear the story of several young couples'	25m 25s Excerpt 7:00m	Andrea Everson WellShare International 122 West Franklin Avenue, Suite 510 Minneapolis, MN 55404 612-230-3258

		experiences giving birth and raising families in the United States. The friends share their stories, exploring how to stay healthy during and after pregnancy through regular exercise, good nutrition, and practicing breastfeeding. The video also explains the health advantages, religious support, and methods of child spacing (family planning). In Somali with English subtitles.		aeverson@wellshareinternational.org
5. Embracing Diversity: Crossing Barriers to Deliver Treatment to Everyone	U.S. Department of Health and Humans Services Washington, DC	This episode will look at how substance use is acceptable in some cultures and how this may create a barrier for individuals seeking treatment and recovery services. Also the video will consider the importance of providing services that incorporates the specific needs of the individual and examine how some treatment and recovery models are more effective for one group than another.	Full length 60:00m Excerpt 7:00m	Elizabeth Harris, PhD Evaluation, Management & Training, Inc. 15720 Ventura Blvd. The Penthouse Encino, CA 91436 818-990-8301 eharris@emt.org
6. Get Outside and Move	3 rd Eye Youth Empowerment, Inc and the National Park Service New Bedford, MA	This film is the result of a partnership between 3 rd EYE and the National Park Service, entitled "YAP!" (Youth Ambassador Program). "YAP!" is composed of teen musical and dance artists whose goal is to educate their peers about important health, social, and historical issues through music and art.	Excerpt 7:00m	Ben Gilbarg Project Director 28 Union St. New Bedford, MA 02740 (508) 965-1132 putouttheword@yahoo.com
7. Reef or Madness	Julie Hollenbeck University of Miami Key Biscayne, FL	This short documentary recounts the struggle of chronic Ciguatera sufferers who seek to regain some semblance of their healthy and productive lives following Ciguatera exposure and the incapacitating symptoms that can last for	16m 20s Excerpt 7:00m	Julie Hollenbeck, MA OHHC/NIOSH Occupational Research Group University of Miami 4600 Rickenbacker Cswy EG 211 Key Biscayne, FL 33149 (305) 421-4609 jhollenbeck@rsmas.miami.edu years. The film will discuss the marine neurotoxin Ciguatoxin, and the related human illness Ciguatera, and give a ‘voice” to the sufferers of chronic Ciguatera, who face doubt, confusion and scorn from themselves, their families and friends, as well as the medical and scientific communities.

8. Released to Life: True Stories of Returning Home After Incarceration	George Washington University Washington, DC	It is estimated that in the United States one in every 31 adults is currently incarcerated, on probation, or parole. The documentary followed several recently released ex-offenders and observed their struggle to redefine themselves within society.	16m 02s Excerpt 7:00m	Yavar Moghimi, MD George Washington University Medical Center Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences 2150 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, 8th Floor Washington, D.C. 20037
9. Medicine in Meadville: W2W4Life Fitness Program for Children	Armstrong Cable Meadville, PA	Decreasing physical education in the schools coupled with the prevalence of childhood obesity prompted the need to increase childhood activities. The program was developed to introduce multiple sports to children ages 6-13 in Crawford County, PA.	44m 28s Excerpt 7:00m	Nina Bell, MPH, MDip, CFRE School of Health Sciences Walden University 509 Gilmore Street Meadville, PA 16335 Phone Number: 814-337-3070 Fax Number: 814-333-1191 Email: neeners01@yahoo.com Alternate Email: nina.bell@waldenu.edu
10. Red Tide Research in Paradise	Julie Hollenbeck University of Miami Key Biscayne, FL	The film documents the first study of it kind to look at human health effects of airborne toxin exposure from the Florida red tide, and follows Sarasota resident Julie Odenweller, as she volunteers to participate in the annual study. The film sheds the light on the impact of red tide on the most vulnerable population, especially coastal residents and beach-going tourists with respiratory disease.	15m 40s Excerpt 7:00m	Julie Hollenbeck, MA OHHC/NIOSH Occupational Research Group University of Miami 4600 Rickenbacker Cswy EG 211 Key Biscayne, FL 33149 (305) 421-4609 jhollenbeck@rsmas.miami.edu

11. POP (Guys): Protecting the Disability Community	Robinson Films Inc NY, USA Schwab Rehabilitation Hospital USA	The goal of this video is to empower people with disabilities to realize that they still can be sexual beings while also giving them the tools needed to do so as safely as possible.	16m Excerpt 7:00m	Kimberly M. Taylor Manager of Program Development, Evaluation, and Research California Avenue at 15 th Street Chicago, IL 60608 773-542-2000 Kimberly.taylor@sinai.org
12. Fetal Well Being: The Kick Count Method	Northern New Jersey Maternal Child Health Consortium	The Kick Count method was specifically designed to increase fetal activity awareness among pregnant women and women planning pregnancy. The film's goal is to encourage woman to contact their obstetrical provider anytime they have doubts about their baby's well being.	7m 18s	Liliana Pinete, MD, MPH Vice President of Program Development & Evaluation 17 Arcadian Avenue, Suite 204 Paramus, NJ 07652 201-843-7400 lpinete@nnjm-chc.org
13. Blood Roots: Hemophilia Treatment Centers, Pioneers in Comprehensive Health Care		Blood Roots chronicles the start of the Federal Hemophilia Treatment Centers in the western United States, as told by the visionary health care professionals who founded this unique and effective treatment model. It explores the successes and hardships encounters: from the beginning of the treatment centers in the late 1960's, through the AIDS crisis of the 1980's, to present day challenges.	34m Excerpt 7:00m	Judith R. Baker, MHSA Department of Pediatric Hematology Oncology University of California Los Angeles 10833 Le Conte Ave A2-410 MDCC Los Angeles, CA 90095 Phone Number: 310 794 6264 Email: judithbaker@mednet.ucla.edu Alternate Email: judithbaker321@gmail.com
14. Bad Blood: A Cautionary Tale	Necessary Films New York, NY	This video explains how it was possible for 10,000 Americans to become infected with HIV and hepatitis C from their FDA-approved medications and recounts one community's inspiring fight to right the system that failed them.	82m Excerpt 7:00m	Marilyn Ness Director/Producer 167 East 67 th Street, Suite #10EF New York, NY 10065 (212) 639-9383 marilyn@necessaryfilms.com

Session Two: Tuesday, November 1, 2011 12:30PM-2:00PM – WCC 206

15. No Family History: What's Behind The Pink?	Canary Productions	Robin is one woman who asks why she got breast cancer. The answer leads her exposure to environmental toxics. They are in the home, makeup, and food she eats everyday. Her intimate story brings the visually hidden experience of breast cancer into light, and motivates us to ask what is really getting in the way of stopping breast cancer?	Excerpt 7:00m	Sabrina McCormick 1418 12 th St NW Washington, DC 20005-4404 www.nofamilyhistory.com
16. Faces of Black Lung	NIOSH: National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health	In this film you will hear from two coal miners. Both of these have been diagnosed with this devastating disease, black lung. They want to share their stories and provide a little insight on how their lives have changed due to this disease.	13.5m Excerpt 7:00m	Tanya Headley Dept of Health and Human Services 1095 Willowdale Rd MS 4050 Morgantown, WV 26505
17. Parents Are the Key: To Safe Teen Drivers	Center for Disease Control	This video informs parents about ways and skills that will encourage their teen on how be an attentive driver and ways to drive as safe as possible.	4m 44s	Shelley Hammond, MMC Division of Unintentional Injury Prevention Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Centers for Disease Control and Prevention 4770 Buford Highway NE MS F 62 Atlanta, GA 30341 Phone Number: 770-488-3948 Email: shammond@cdc.gov Alternate Email: ssheremata77@gmail.com
18. Paths to Recovery: Stories From Two Blood Cancer Survivors	The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society	In this video, cancer survivors describe challenges they experienced in their paths to recovery from initial diagnosis, treatment and short and long-term side effects, and healthcare professionals share insights and strategies for support.	40m 38s Excerpt 7:00m	Lauren Berger, MPH The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society 1311 Mamaroneck Avenue Suite 310 White Plains, NY 10605 (914) 949-5213
19. Living on Hemodialysis in the Texas Rio Grande Valley		The number of people with end-stage-renal-disease (ESRD) and living with dialysis is a growing public health concern. It is estimated that 7.4 million adults aged 20 years and older have moderate or severe chronic kidney disease. Nearly 400,000 of	5m 14s	Shirley A. Wells, OTR, DrPH The University of Texas Pan American Occupational Therapy Department 1201 West university Drive Edinburg, TX 78539 956-665-2474 wellssa@utpa.edu these individuals will progress to end-stage-renal failure requiring dialysis or a kidney transplant to stay alive.

20. Influenza Vaccination Q&A for Healthcare Workers	Main Sail Production Services Inc	It is commonplace that hospital accrediting agencies require hospitals to collect declination forms on healthcare workers who refuse influenza vaccination. In an attempt to increase our own hospital's influenza vaccination rates, we created a question/answer video that addresses the misconceptions as to why our healthcare workers decline vaccination.	6m 41s	Ann M. Biedenharn, RN, BSN Green Memorial Hospital Employee Health 1141 N. Monroe Drive Xenia OH 45385
21. Health and Environment Action Network (HEAN)	Brownsville Community Health Center	This film discusses health and environmental awareness in the Hispanic Community, and informs viewers on how to prevent illnesses and diseases in public places. HEAN is a national and locally driven effort committed to securing the right of all people to clean air and water. HEAN's goal is to identify health risks from air and water pollution and mobilize community solutions.	6m 32s	Edgar M. Gil Senior Health Program Manager National Alliance for Hispanic Health 1501 Sixteenth Street, NW Washington, D.C. 20036-1401 (202) 797-4331 emg@hispanichealth.org Alix Flores Marketing Director Brownsville Community Health Center 302 Kings Hwy, Suite 103 Brownsville, TX 78521 alixflores@sbcglobal.net
22. Designing Healthy Communities	Harry and Dale, Co-Executive Producers/Director	This video will give an overview on how the community can work together to make the environment healthier for the people that live in it. It will also discuss some healthy environment policies that are currently being enforced.	Excerpt 7:00m	Harry Wiland Executive Producer/Director Co-CEO/President 2932 Wilshire Blvd./Ste 203 Santa Monica, CA 90403 310/828-2966 ext. 100 www.mediapolicycenter.org

23. No Warning Shots	Center for Health Justice	This film provides information about risks and realities of HIV/AIDS and Hepatitis C in California prisons and other correctional settings.	30m Excerpt 7:00m	Center for Health Justice 900 Avila St, Suite 301 Los Angeles, CA 90012
24. Facing a Pandemic: Wisconsin's Response to 2009 H1N1 Influenza	Wisconsin Division of Public Health	The documentary film illustrates key aspects of Wisconsin's public health response through the eyes of public health professionals and other key stakeholders. Illuminating their stories, situations, and perspectives, the film seeks to educate and document important elements in a public health emergency.	24m Excerpt 7:00m	Diane L. Downie MPH Public Health Preparedness Program Division of Public Health Wisconsin Department of Health Services PO Box 2659 Madison, WI 53701-2659
Session Three: Tuesday, November 1, 2011 2:30PM-4:00PM – WCC 206
25. So you want to be a public health dental hygienist? making a difference serving seniors		Evidence demonstrates that a healthy mouth is linked to over health and wellness. Unfortunately, there are significant unmet oral health needs among seniors in Massachusetts. Even seniors with no natural teeth have oral health needs.	7m 18s	Lynn A. Bethel, RDH, MPH Office of Oral Health Massachusetts Department of Public Health 250 Washington Street 5th Floor Boston, MA 02343 Phone Number: 617-624-6074 Fax Number: 617-624-6062 Email: lynn.bethel@state.ma.us Alternate Email: LynnABethel@aol.com
26. Affordable Care Act & You		On March 23, and March 30, 2010, President Obama signed the Affordable Care Act and the Education & Healthcare Reconciliation Act. As a result, millions more Americans will have health insurance.	3m	Presenter Elena Ong, PHN, SM Asian Pacific American Medical Student Association 10479 Colina Way Los Angeles, CA 90077 Phone Number: 310-948-2947 Fax Number: 424-204-0786 Publishable Email: elena.ong.1@gmail.com

27. Raw Opium	Kensington Communications Inc	Raw Opium is a documentary about a commodity that has tremendous power, to ease pain and to destroy lives. The opium poppy is the raw material for heroin, fueling a vast criminal trade larger than the economies of many countries. The film takes us on a journey around the world and through time, where conflicting forces battle over the narcotic sap of the opium poppy. We enter the disparate worlds of an opium master in South east Asia, a UN drug enforcement officer on the border of Afghanistan hunting down the smugglers of central Asia, a former Indian government Drug Czar who encounters the opium farmers of northern India, a Vancouver user struggling to kick the habit, a case study of Portugal where they are tackling the issue of dealing with drugs through the public health system instead of criminal justice, and how effective that is. Through their stories and interviews, we see how this flower has played, and continues to play, a pivotal role - not just in the lives of people who grow, manufacture and use it - but also in the political instability of an increasingly interconnected and turbulent world.	84 minutes Excerpt 7:00m	Email: shasan@kensingtontv.com, outreach@rawopium.com Ph: 416-504-9822
28. One Shot Heroes		Eleven and twelve-year-olds are at an age when they begin making important decisions and are ready to be involved with their own health. However, preteens often underestimate their risk for vaccine-	15m Excerpt 7:00m	Tammy Pilisuk, MPH Immunization Branch CA Department of Public Health 850 Marina Bay Parkway Building P, 2nd Floor Richmond, CA 94804 Phone Number: 510-620-3753

		preventable disease and have an increasing fear of injections. To counter these barriers to immunization, it is vital to communicate through effective and appealing media such as video, which can now be shared on popular social networking websites.		Email: Tammy.Pilisuk@cdph.ca.gov Alternate Email: bello6bello@hotmail.com
29. Use Your Strength: Mobilizing Young Men to Prevent Sexual and Dating Violence		For more than 10 years Men Can Stop Rape has conducted programs for men and boys in middle school, high school and college settings, that engage them to prevent violence against women in a variety of forms by critically examining masculinity and becoming better allies of women and girls.	34m Excerpt 7:00m	Joseph Vess, MA Department of Training and Technical Assistance Men Can Stop Rape 1003 K St NW Suite 200 Washington, DC 20001 Phone Number: 202-534-1836 Fax Number: 202-265-4362 Publishable Email: jvess@mencanstoprape.org Alternate Email: josephvess@yahoo.com
30. A Question of Hope/Una Cuestión de Esperanza		"A Question of Hope" was commissioned by California's Department of Public Health, Maternal, Child and Adolescent Health Program and Office of Family Planning to help guide local and state pregnancy prevention activities. The film aims to capture the insights, choices and opportunities of young Latina women in California.	22m 56s Excerpt 7:00m	M. Antonia Biggs, PhD Bixby Center for Global Reproductive Health University of California, San Francisco 3333 California Street Suite 265 San Francisco, CA 94143-0936 Phone Number: 415-476-9813 Fax Number: 415-476-0705 Email: antonia.biggs@ucsf.edu Alternate Email: m.antonia.biggs@gmail.com
31. What The Affordable Care Act Means to Asian American Native Hawaiian Pacific Islanders			2m 36s	Elena Ong, PHN, SM Asian Pacific American Medical Student Association 10479 Colina Way Los Angeles, CA 90077 Phone Number: 310-948-2947 Fax Number: 424-204-0786 Publishable Email: elena.ong.1@gmail.com

32. Advance Directives		Our entry is a 16 minute long teaching film about the value of advance care planning. While most notions of planning for the end-of-life focus on more senior populations, this film looks at such preparations from the perspective of two students who must decide whether they want to complete an advance directive.	16m Excerpt 7:00m	Craig M. Klugman, PhD Center for Medical Humanities & Ethics UT Health Science Center San Antonio 7703 Floyd Curl Drive MC 7730 San Antonio, TX 78229-3900 Phone Number: 210-567-1365 Fax Number: 210-567-0805 Email: klugman@uthscsa.edu Alternate Email: wich@uthscsa.edu
33. Accident: (a)The Accident Survivor and (b) Medical Rehabilitation After an Accident	Producer: Ziggy Kozicki Co-Producer: Stephanie Baiyasi-Kozicki	The Survivors is a personal account of how an motor vehicle accident is experienced by four different survivors. Each person shares how their life has been altered and how they have adapted to the trauma of a motor vehicle accident.	60m Excerpt 7:00m	Zigmond Kozicki, DHA, MA, MSHA MidMichigan Neuropsychology 4705 Towne Centre Medical Arts One Suite 304 Saginaw, MI 48604 Phone Number: 989-450-1451 Fax Number: 989-921-5100 Email: Zigpsych@sbcglobal.net
34. Pandemia Invisible		Shortly after the initial outbreak of the H1N1 pandemic in the spring of 2009, researchers from NCDP travelled to four US cities to explore how communities of undocumented Mexican immigrants were responding to the evolving health threat. A documentary team from the Spanish public television network HITN chronicled the researchers' efforts, following the team from New York City to Homestead, Florida; McAllen, Texas; and Los Angeles, California.	51m 4s Excerpt 7:00m	David M. Abramson, PhD MPH National Center for Disaster Preparedness Columbia University 215 West 125th Street, Suite 303 New York, NY 10027 Phone Number: 646-845-2321 Fax Number: 646-845-2329 Email: dma3@columbia.edu
35. 3000 Miles: The Color of Words	Magalis Martinez The Color of Words, LLC	In the summer of 2009, a group of young people in new Haven, Connecticut, set out to discover the social determinants of health in their community. In an effort to document and improve the welfare of their city and initiate social change they collectively walked a total of 3,000 miles. This film,	11:46 Excerpt 7:00m	M. Martinez PO Box 9198 New Haven, CT 06532 thecolorofwords@gmail.com

		which was created by high school youth, documents the experience they had mapping assets in 6 neighborhoods in the city, as well as their reflections and interviews with community members and leaders about what would make a healthier New Haven. This documentary film was a collaborative effort between The Color of Words (a youth-driven, new media design studio), Youth@Work (the city's youth employment program), and the Yale School of Public Health's Community Alliance for Research and Engagement.
36. Safe Schools/Healthy Students: Show me How	Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration	A 90-second "commercial" for the rising concerns about youth violence and school safety.	1m 30s	Linah Colgrove Communication & Social Marketing Center C/O ICF Macro 11420 Rockville Pike Rockville, MD 20582 lcolgrove@icfi.com
Session Four: Tuesday November 1, 2011 4:30PM-6:00PM – WCC 206
37. Giving and receiving thanks for patient- and family-centered care		Patient- and Family-Centered Care (PFCC) is a critical strategy to improving health care quality and safety. Unscripted and in their own words, patients and their family members in an inpatient surgical oncology unit at Georgia Health Sciences University - MCGHealth adult hospital, share meaningful experiences and perspectives about being treated with dignity and respect, having access to care providers and information, and what it means to partner	10m 14s	Christine O'Meara, MA, MPH Center for Patient- and Family-Centered Care Georgia Health Sciences University 1120 15th Street AB-170 Augusta, GA 30912 Phone Number: 706-721-8291 Fax Number: 706-706-3889 Email: comeara@georgiahealth.edu Alternate Email: comeara2120@earthlink.net

		with their caregivers – three core concepts of PFCC. But the practice of patient- and family-centered care extends beyond the hospital bed and spills out into the corridors and into the lives of patients, their families, and staff.
38. Evacuating the Medically Dependent	Linda King	These videos are part of a larger, online course developed for FEMA by the Yale New Haven Center for Emergency Preparedness and Disaster Response.	Excerpt 7:00m	Linda Bergonzi King, MPH Center for Emergency Preparedness and Disaster Response Yale New Haven Health System 1 Church Street 5th floor New Haven, CT 06510 Phone Number: 203-688-4474 Publishable Email: linda.king@ynhh.org Alternate Email: bellapro@aol.com
39. Role of Navigators in Community Health		“Navigators” are lay health workers with specialized training that prepares them to bridge health system resources to specific communities of need.	19m 49s Excerpt 7:00m	Manon Schladen, MSE PMP EdS Research Division, National Rehabilitation Hospital MedStar Health Research Institute 102 Irving Street NW Washington, DC 21403 Phone Number: 202-302-1931 Publishable Email: manon.schladen@medstar.net Alternate Email: manon.schladen@gmail.com
40. Out to Pasture: The Future of Farming?		Almost all of the animals we eat in this country are raised in so-called “confinement” operations – indoor facilities that house thousands of chickens, cows or hogs. Unlike the diversified farms that once were the norm, confinement operations tend to be highly specialized.	34m 15s Excerpt 7:00m	Leo Horrigan, MHS Johns Hopkins Center for a Livable Future Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health 615 N. Wolfe st. W7010 Baltimore, MD 21205 Phone Number: 410-502-7578 Publishable Email: lhorriga@jhsph.edu
41. Hardest Hit: Survival strategies from the front lines of climate change		Around the world, our climate is changing. And some of us are hit harder than others. From the US Gulf Coast to southern Ethiopia, from the rice fields of Vietnam to the villages of El Salvador, it's the poorest people who are on the front lines of	Excerpt 7:00m	S. Kalloch Sarah Kalloch, I work on climate, food justice and poverty alleviation campaigns for Oxfam America Oxfam America 226 Causeway Street Boston, MA 02114 Phone Number: 6175179412

		climate change.		Fax Number: 6173712769 Publishable Email: skalloch@oxfamamerica.org Alternate Email: sarahkalloch@yahoo.com
42. Sisters on the planet: Invest in women farmers		Hunger is not about too many people and too little food. It's about poverty – and inequality. And women and girls face the greatest inequalities of all. But it doesn't have to be this way. Oxfam has brought together a diverse group of American women as Sisters on the Planet, who are raising awareness about climate change, hunger, and other crises facing women in poor countries. They are using their influence to support women as they fight poverty and hunger now and for generations to come.	4m 30s	Sarah Kalloch, I work on climate, food justice and poverty alleviation campaigns for Oxfam America Oxfam America 226 Causeway Street Boston, MA 02114 Phone Number: 6175179412 Fax Number: 6173712769 Publishable Email: skalloch@oxfamamerica.org Alternate Email: sarahkalloch@yahoo.com
43. Sisters on the planet: Four inspirational women and the fight against climate change		Climate change is hitting women hardest by exacerbating already existing gender inequalities. This video features the stories of four women from Bangladesh, Mississippi, Brazil, and Ethiopia. Each of them are affected very differently by climate change, but they've all decided to do whatever they can in their own lives to put a stop to it.	27m Excerpt 7:00m	Sarah Kalloch, I work on climate, food justice and poverty alleviation campaigns for Oxfam America Oxfam America 226 Causeway Street Boston, MA 02114 Phone Number: 6175179412 Fax Number: 6173712769 Publishable Email: skalloch@oxfamamerica.org Alternate Email: sarahkalloch@yahoo.com
44. A look at hemophilia: Building a better tomorrow.		Blood disorders affect millions of people each year in the United States, cutting across the boundaries of age, race, sex, and socioeconomic status. Men, women, and children of all backgrounds live with complications associated with these conditions, many of which are painful and potentially life-threatening. With proper preventive actions	5m 14s	Gretchen Simmons, MPH, MCHES Division of Blood Disorders Centers for Disease Control and Prevention 1600 Clifton Rd., NE MS-E-64 Atlanta, GA 30333 Phone Number: 404-498-6734 Fax Number: 404-498-6799 Publishable Email: gmsimmons@cdc.gov Alternate Email: guu3@cdc.gov and early intervention, many of these disorders and their complications could, to a large extent, be eliminated.

45. DBD: Building a better tomorrow		Blood disorders affect millions of people each year in the United States, cutting across the boundaries of age, race, sex, and socioeconomic status. Men, women, and children of all backgrounds live with complications associated with these conditions, many of which are painful and potentially life-threatening. With proper preventive actions and early intervention, many of these disorders and their complications could, to a large extent, be eliminated.	6m 27s	Gretchen Simmons, MPH, MCHES Division of Blood Disorders Centers for Disease Control and Prevention 1600 Clifton Rd., NE MS-E-64 Atlanta, GA 30333 Phone Number: 404-498-6734 Fax Number: 404-498-6799 Publishable Email: gmsimmons@cdc.gov Alternate Email: guu3@cdc.gov
46. A look at deep vein thrombosis and pulmonary embolism: Building a better tomorrow		Blood disorders affect millions of people each year in the United States, cutting across the boundaries of age, race, sex, and socioeconomic status. Men, women, and children of all backgrounds live with complications associated with these conditions, many of which are painful and potentially life-threatening. With proper preventive actions and early intervention, many of these disorders and their complications could, to a large extent, be eliminated.	10m 13s Excerpt 7:00m	Gretchen Simmons, MPH, MCHES Division of Blood Disorders Centers for Disease Control and Prevention 1600 Clifton Rd., NE MS-E-64 Atlanta, GA 30333 Phone Number: 404-498-6734 Fax Number: 404-498-6799 Publishable Email: gmsimmons@cdc.gov Alternate Email: guu3@cdc.gov

Session Five: Wednesday November 2, 2011 12:30PM-2:00PM – WCC 206

47. It's A Big Decision		African-American (AA) men bear a disproportionate burden of prostate cancer (CaP) diagnosis and mortality. Current opinions regarding the value of CaP screening differ among various medical organizations. Therefore, it is important that AA men have appropriate and understandable information to make informed decisions about CaP screening.	25m 21s Excerpt 7:00m	Alton Hart, MD, MPH Internal Medicine Virginia Commonwealth University 1200 East Broad Street P.O. Box 980306 Richmond, VA 23298 Phone Number: 8048280920 Fax Number: 8048284862 Email: ahart@vcu.edu Alternate Email: figaroblk@yahoo.com
48. Breast Biologues: A biology dialogue about breast cancer and the environment		How does the breast develop and how do exposures to potential cancer-causing chemicals at specific times during development influence future breast cancer risk? The Bay Area Breast Cancer and the Environment Research Center (BABCERC) produced a new video called The Breast Biologues: A biology dialogue about breast cancer and the environment that answers these questions.	17m 57s Excerpt 7:00m	Casandra Aldsworth, MPH Bay Area Breast Cancer and the Environment Research Program Zero Breast Cancer 4340 Redwood Highway, Suite C400 San Rafael, CA 94903 Phone Number: 415-507-1949 Fax Number: 415-507-1645 Email: casandra@zerobreastcancer.org Alternate Email: casandra.aldsworth@gmail.com
49. Center for Health Equity and Social Justice: Shifting the Public Health Paradigm		Communities across New England, in collaboration with the Center for Health Equity and Social Justice at the Boston Public Health Commission, work to increase health equity by mobilizing the public, addressing racism and the social determinants of health, and promoting systemic change.	Excerpt 7:00m	Julie Mallozzi, Producer/Director Filmmaker Julie Mallozzi Productions 160 Harriet Ave. Quincy, MA 02171 Phone Number: 617-472-6770 Publishable Email: juliemallozzi@gmail.com
50. Creating Harmony: A Guide for Families		Raising children to be happy, healthy, and socially well-adjusted is difficult for parents, particularly for immigrant and refugee parents in the United States. Often, these families live in ethnic enclaves, experience social and linguistic isolation, financial difficulties,	29m 16s Excerpt 7:00m	Heidi Alvarez, MPH Substance Abuse Prevention Program Asian Health Coalition 180 West Washington Suite 1000 Chicago, IL 60602 Phone Number: 312-372-7070 Fax Number: 312-372-7171 Publishable Email: heidi@asianhealth.org

		and encounter barriers to accessing health and human services.		Alternate Email: halvarez814@gmail.com
51. Tamale Lesson		The Romero family is preparing for ROSITA's Quinceañera – her 15th birthday celebration. It's the day before the Quinceañera and there are decorations everywhere. In the kitchen, LUPITA, late 20s, talks on her cell phone. She hangs up angrily and says, “Yeah, well then don't bother calling me, because it's over.” LUPITA sighs deeply trying to hold back a few tears. Her sister, CONNIE, 21, is busy cutting up cilantro. CONNIE asks her sister what happened. LUPITA gets close to her and whispers that she found out she has the HPV virus and she knows she got it from her boyfriend.	12m 19s Excerpt 7:00m	Sheila Murphy, PhD Annenberg School of Communication University of Southern California 3502 Watt Way Los Angeles, CA 90089-0281 Phone Number: 213 740 3936 Email: smurphy@usc.edu Alternate Email: amezolad@usc.edu
52. Spitting Game: The College Hook up Culture		Examines and challenges the "hooking up" status quo by providing students & educators with up to date information about the risks, reasons, and realities within the college hook up culture.	Excerpt 7:00m	Denice Evans, Filmmaker/National Speaker CEO/Owner J' Hue Film Productions 1145 Northshore Drive Roswell, GA 30076 Phone Number: 770-655-6008 Publishable Email: deniceevans@bellsouth.net Alternate Email: jhuefilms@gmail.com
53. Boys Town At-Risk Youth Campaign		These PSA's inform viewers that trained hotline counselors are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The PSA's also inform viewers of several ways to connect with a hotline counselor including phone, email, and live chat during specific times.	Excerpt 7:00m	Banyan Communications (Film Producer) 3569 New Town Lake Drive St. Charles (St. Louis,) MO 63301 www.banyancommunications.com 636.946.3456 888.277.7519 Contact: Sally Deval Publishable email: sdeval@banyancom.com or Merrell Hansen 314.503.8844

54. d-up! Brothers Keeping Brothers Safe		Education and training, evidence-based intervention that helps organizations mobilize black men who have sex with men (MSM) to stop HIV.	Excerpt 7:00m	Banyan Communications (Film Producer) 3569 New Town Lake Drive St. Charles (St. Louis,) MO 63301 www.banyancommunications.com 636.946.3456 888.277.7519 Contact: Sally Deval Publishable email: sdeval@banyancom.com Or Merrell Hansen 314.503.8844