Thank You for Registering for APHA's 2019 Annual Meeting and Expo!

Our Sept. newsletter is packed with updates, announcements, highlights and suggestions for making the most of your time in Philadelphia and planning your travel and schedule. All monthly newsletters are also posted online for future reference!

Top 3 Things You Can Do to Prepare for Philly

1. Download the APHA 2019 Mobile App NOW! This will allow you to get familiar with the app, schedule sessions and learn about all that's happening at the meeting.

2. Learn about APHA's family-friendly policies and services. APHA does not provide childcare at the meeting or endorse or recommend any specific agencies. However, established referral agencies that offer childcare in Philadelphia include: The Philadelphia Nanny Network and the ABC Nanny Source. Your hotel may offer recommendations as well.

3. Gather what you need to pack with a purpose! We suggest comfortable walking shoes, business cards, a light sweater or jacket for chilly session rooms and an umbrella (hopefully you won't need it!).

There is So Much to Look Forward to

Many people choose to attend the Annual Meeting for the incredible opportunity to network and connect with professionals, leaders and organizations that share their passion for public health. Here are a few ways to be a part of the conversation and prepare for some of the social events taking place.

BEFORE THE MEETING:

- Mid-term elections take place Nov. 5. If your state has an election, please vote early or sign up for an absentee ballot as soon as possible! The NSAA can help you figure out your options.
- Read the Annual Meeting Blog and the guest series Fresh Perspectives by the de Beaumont Foundation.
- Learn the APHA Dance now, so you can show off your moves at the dance party on Sunday, Nov. 3, at 5:30 p.m.
- Use the Attendee Finder feature in the mobile app to see who’s coming from the organizations and schools you partner with.

DURING THE MEETING:

- Add Social Media Lab presentations to your schedule, or sign up for a one-on-one coaching session with an expert.
- Stop by the Speak for Health wall in the PCC Grand Hall and tell us what public health issues matter to you.

Plan a Walk Through the Expo Hall

- Explore hundreds of booths from leading public health organization and schools.
- View the poster sessions.
- Visit the Industry Expert Theater for live product demonstrations and short talks from exhibitors.
- Have a FREE, professional headshot taken near the membership desk inside Everything APHA. This is the perfect opportunity to give your LinkedIn profile a touch-up!
- Stop by APHA Press on Sunday, Nov. 3, at 3:30 p.m. to meet authors at the book signing party.
- Meet with recruiters from leading organizations or get one-on-one professional career coaching at the Public Health CareerMart.
- Share your adventures in the expo hall and win prizes. Participate in the APHA Play social media contest. Visit pre-selected exhibitors, tag them in a photo or post and share it on social media using #APHA2019 to be entered into a drawing to win prizes!

Give Back at APHA 2019

Join APHA’s effort to give back to our host city. Make a real impact in Philly by giving generously to Turning Points for Children:

1. Log back in and donate. So far, we’ve raised $10,379!

2. Drop off an unopened gift at the volunteer event to be wrapped and donated. No sign-up required. We are appreciative of all gifts but encourage you to think about older children and teens who are often overlooked. Check out our list of gift recommendations.

Learn About Virtual Attendance

APHA Live is available for purchase. Share with colleagues unable to attend APHA 2019.
Accessibility at the Meeting

It is the policy of APHA to hold meetings, conferences and professional gatherings where physical and communication barriers do not exclude people with disabilities from attending and participating. APHA is committed to making the Annual Meeting accessible to the widest range of people possible.

Make accessibility requests in advance. Email access@apha.org or call 202-777-2428.

Learn more about accessibility and read the Annual Meeting’s accessibility guide.

Spread the Word

The Exhibitor Video Contest is still open! If your school or organization is exhibiting, encourage them to make a one minute video about why attendees should visit their booth first.

Don't just listen, join the conversation! Follow @APHAAnnualMtg on Twitter and use #APHA2019 in your tweets! Share your excitement for the meeting and encourage your peers to attend, too!

See You in Philly!
