

Hussein Assaf, MD
World Vision International, Syria
Nutrition and Health coordinator

Hussein Assaf joined the staff of World Vision International (WVI) in Gaziantep as the health and nutrition coordinator. He has worked in other positions at WVI including as a medical activity manager in Gaziantep and a medical officer in Jarablus. Hussein has also worked previously at Medecins du Monde, France as the medical supervisor and as a medical referent.

Hussein graduated from the faculty of General Medicine of Aleppo, Syria. He holds a specialization diploma in pediatrics. While in Syria, he worked at his own clinic as the head of the pediatrics department in the Police Hospital of Aleppo.